Call Oswald's Widow

DALLAS—Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter, widow of the man named as President Kennedy's assassin, was served with a suppoena to appear in New Orleans Feb. 8 and 9 at the probe into the alleged conspiracy against Kennedy.

The now remarried widow of Lee Harvey Oswald has said she would go to New Orleans only if required by law, and a hearing has been set for Thursday before a state district judge on the subpoena ordering here to appear there.

If she is directed to appear, it will be the first time New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison has succeeded in putting on the stand any witnesses other than residents of Louisiana.
